IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 120 months.

A term of 60 months is imposed as to Count S1; a term of 60 months is imposed as to Count S3; said terms shall run consecutively for a total term of 120 months.

The Court incorporates by reference its Order Dismissing Count 2 of the Indictment, filed August 29, 2011 (Doc. 38), and its Order, filed August 30, 2011 (Doc. 36), granting the United States' request for downward adjustment. Defendant Blake Brown, pursuant to a Plea Agreement, filed March 16, 2011 (Doc. 28), pled guilty to Counts I and III of the Indictment, filed August 25, 2010 (Doc. 1). Counts I and III of the Indictment charged Brown with a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A)(i), that being knowingly carrying a firearm during and in relation to a drug trafficking crime, and a violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C), that being possession with intent to distribute methamphetamine. The Plea Agreement stipulates to a 3-level reduction in Brown's offense level pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1 for recognition and affirmative acceptance of personal responsibility for his criminal conduct. See Plea Agreement ¶ 10, at 5. Pursuant to the Plea Agreement, Brown agreed to forfeit any interest he has in any asset derived from the commission of the offenses in this case. See Plea Agreement ¶ 13, at 6.

The United States Probation Office ("USPO") disclosed a Presentence Investigation Report ("PSR") for Brown on July 25, 2011. In the PSR, the USPO calculated Brown's guideline imprisonment sentence for Count I as 60 months as required by statute, which must run consecutively to any sentence imposed. See PSR ¶ 35, at 10. For Count III, the USPO calculated the total offense level to be 25. See PSR ¶ 44, at 12. The PSR included a 3-level reduction under U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1 based on Brown's acceptance of responsibility for the offense of conviction. See PSR ¶ 43, at 12. The PSR lists his criminal history category as II, based on 2 criminal history points. See PSR ¶ 49, at 14. With respect to Count III, an offense level of 25 and a criminal history category II results in a guideline imprisonment range of 63 to 78 months.

The USPO disclosed a Second Memorandum and Presentence Investigation Report to clarify an inadvertent omission of Brown's eligible time served credit from the custodial status calculations in the first Memorandum and the re-disclosed PSR. At the sentencing hearing, Brown orally moved for a variance on Count III, seeking a total sentence of 120 months for both offenses pursuant to the mandatory minimum for these offenses. See Transcript of Hearing at 4:11-15 (taken August 25, 2011) ("Tr.") (Jameson). Plaintiff United States of America did not oppose his request for a variance at the hearing. See Tr. at 8:18-21 (Messec).

Given that the parties do not object to the sentencing guideline applications in the PSR, the Court adopts the sentencing calculation in the PSR as its own. As to Count I of the Superseding Indictment, the guideline sentence is the statutorily required sentence of 60 months, which will run consecutively to any other sentence imposed. As to Count III of the Superseding Indictment, the offense level is 25 and the criminal history category is II, resulting in a guideline imprisonment range of 63 to 78 months. The Court notes that, between January 2009 and March 2010, Brown was arrested on four occasions for possession with intent to distribute 32.25 net grams of methamphetamine and 28.7 net grams of methamphetamine. On one of those occasions, Brown was found in possession of a Ruger Model A nine millimeter firearm, a Savage Arms Model 270 caliber rifle, and over 800 rounds of ammunition.

The Court has considered the guideline range for the applicable category of offenses committed by the applicable category of defendant as well as the statutory minimums for these offenses. The Court believes that the punishment that the guidelines set forth is not appropriate for Brown's offenses. The Court believes that a sentence of 60 months for each count, which will run consecutively, is adequate to reflect of the seriousness of the offense, to provide just punishment, to afford adequate deterrence, to protect the public, and to otherwise fully reflect each of the factors embodied in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). Brown has not had an extremely serious sentence before this federal sentence and appears to have lacked rehabilitative effort in the state system. While the Court's task, as a district court, is not to arrive at a reasonable sentence -- it is to come up with one that reflects the factors in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), see United States v. Conlan, 500 F.3d 1167, 1169 (10th Cir. 2007) ("[A] district court's job is not to impose a reasonable sentence. Rather, a district court's mandate is to impose a sentence sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes of section 3553(a)(2)." (citation omitted)) -- the Court believes this sentence is reasonable. The Court has few options with respect to a variance based on the statutory mandatory minimums for the charged offenses. Given the mandatory minimums in this case, a 120-month sentence is sufficient without being greater than necessary to comply with the purposes of punishment Congress set forth in the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, Pub. L. No. 98-473, 98 Stat. 1987. The Court sentences Brown to 120-months incarceration. Brown is sentenced to 60-months incarceration for Count I and 60-months incarceration for Count III. The terms of these sentences shall run consecutively for a total term of 120-months incarceration.

☒ The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

The Court recommends, first, FCI Sheridan; second, Tucson Federal Correctional Institution, Tucson, Arizona; and, third, Florence Federal Correctional Institution, Florence, Colorado, if eligible.

The Court recommends the defendant participate in the Bureau of Prisons 500 hour drug and alcohol treatment program.
